

Savannah Education Trust

The Savannah Education Trust provides an education for some of the poorest children in West Africa through the provision of Christian schools in northern Ghana. In communities as poor as these, the purpose of education is not necessarily to improve job opportunities but (over time) to improve the quality of life. The Trust has three connected programmes: Building schools, Feeding pupils and Training teachers

A public presentation about the work of the charity

God willing will be held on:

Saturday 7 October 2017 at 7 pm at

The Vestry Hall, Cranbrook TN17 3HA

Light refreshments will be served after the meeting.

“Don’t miss this opportunity to learn to value our own privileges . We take for granted so many basic things these people don’t have access to, except through a charity like this.”

Pastor R Wheatley

Hosted by:

The Strict Baptist Chapel
St David’s Bridge, Cranbrook
